 The New Orleans Picayune, speaking of the late appearance of this troupe in the Crescent City, says:
 "Popular opinion has no doubt endorsed the statement that Kelley and Leon have brought forward a minstrel company of able performers, and it will likewise be confessed that no better similar entertainment has ever been offered on this stage. Indeed, it is questionable if any minstrel band ever seen here has reached the degree of general excellence shown by this party. They are accordingly destined to meet with much success here. This result their experience, thus far, has plainly indicated."
Wood's Theater.

He Arrives Safely in Texas.
 By a dispatch received in this city yesterday afternoon, dated Walnut Ridge, Arkansas, it is learned that Abe Rothschild, in charge of J. M. Vines and G. W. Stall, left that place last evening for Jefferson, Texas, at 5 minutes to 9 o'clock, on the Iron Mountain and Southern Railway. After Abe and his companions left the court-house, in this city, as detailed in the STAR of that day, they drove out of the city with all possible haste, to Lawrenceburg, Indiana, in order to avoid the supposed writ from Judge White, of Springfield, supposed to be in the hands of an officer at the service of the prisoner's attorney. The distance to Lawrenceburg, twenty-five miles, was made in three hours. Remained at Turner's Hotel until the 8 o'clock Ohio & Mississippi train arrived, when they boarded the train and proceeded on their way to St. Louis, where they arrived at 9:30 yesterday morning. Barring accidents, the party was due in Jefferson, Texas, at 1 o'clock this afternoon.
 B. CAVAGNA & SON, the wide-awake grocers, No. 31 West Fifth street, come to the front with imported delicacies to-day. They are bound to maintain their well-earned reputation for always having the best of everything.
 The busiest place in Cincinnati is C. R. MABLEY'S New Clothing House, 66 W. Fifth street, opposite Fountain. His store is crowded from morning until night with customers, furnishing the best evidence that the people are alive to their own interest, and appreciate the low prices he is selling "Clothing."

at greatly reduced prices or making great concessions in the way of giving very large prices for old machines taken in exchange, in order to sell their goods. The "Automatic" is not sold on this basis, but is sold purely on its merits, and although people buying this machine can not get as much for their old machines, nor buy at reduced rates, yet the advantages found in the "Automatic" over any other machine in the world, more than pays for the difference in less than six months. Thousands who are using it daily will testify to the above. Office is at 171 West Fourth street.

Our readers, no doubt, have been in their mind the impressions made on the first appearance, some two years since, of the wonderful cures set forth of the curative powers by absorption, as illustrated in Holman's Ague and Liver Pad. With rare exceptions, we do not meet the thing was looked upon with great distrust—that it would soon pass off as a humbug and share the fate of a different remedy, however, it was not long before the experiment was tried by a number of our well-known citizens—cases of long-standing disease, where all the old systems of practice had failed. To their astonishment, they found the Pad to be all and more than was claimed for it. From this small number the news was carried from one to another, until now its reputation has become national for its wonderful efficacy.
